

ABSTRACT OF THE INVENTION

Open-ended apparatus, methods and articles of manufacture for constructing and executing transaction processes and programs are shown. These apparatus, methods and articles of manufacture are primarily used in computerized trading processes. They are constructed using object oriented languages, and comprise one or more plug ins inserted into a logic engine to be used in computerized trading. The plug ins may be predetermined, or constructed as desired.

U.S. PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE